Tails From The Ark

Lady Roberta Simpson, John Butler
Carpenter's Son Publishing

Successful children's author, Lady Roberta Simpson, has written her next book in her series of Nana's Bible Stories. This beautifully illustrated book focuses on telling the story of Noah's Ark from the perspective of the animals. As with her other books, not only does Roberta tell the Bible story in a lively and educational way, but she weaves Biblically themed stories within the main story, allowing the reader to see the original story in a new light and with greater understanding. In Tails From the Ark, Roberta uses each of the seven chapters to illustrate the Fruits of the Spirit. Each chapter tells a tale of a different element of the story of Noah and life on the Ark, while subtly educating the child and their parent on the different Fruits of the Spirit.

Lady Roberta Simpson was born in England to a princess and a big band leader. Lady Roberta Simpson has known a life filled with privilege and persecution. Roberta resides in Barbados with her husband, Kyffin, who was knighted by Queen Elizabeth in 2008. Her first book, Nana's Bible Stories became a children's bestseller.

The Secret of the Lord

The Hidden Truth That Defines Your Destiny

Charles Crismier
Elijah Books

GOD HAS A SECRET. It is a life-changing, destiny-determining "secret." It is a "secret" because the Bible says it is. It is God's secret because He has declared it to be "secret." Yet it is a secret God desires to disclose to all who will seek it, unlocking all of the covenantal blessings and promises of God, both on earth and for eternity.

SECRETS ARE LIKE MYSTERIES. A mystery cries to be mastered. It remains a mystery until the right connections of fact are discerned, unveiling truth that sweeps away the shroud of "mystery." So it is with secrets. A secret remains "secret" only so long as the truth of the matter remains hidden or unknown. Once uncovered, the secret is no longer "secret" but becomes available for decision-making regarding life direction and eternal destiny. Such is The Secret of the Lord.

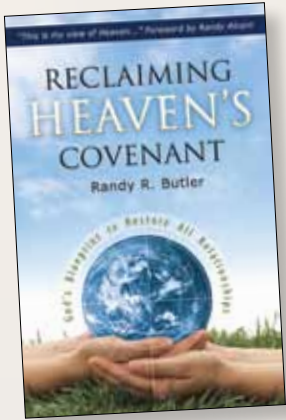

"SECRETS" ABOUND. They can lure the unsuspecting to invest their lives and resources in false hopes leading to broken promises, disillusionment, and eventually eternal destruction. Yet God's secret is singular and secure in a world offering a buffet table of supposed spiritual "secrets." So important is God's "secret," that it becomes our Creator's final gospel message to our planet before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

There has never been a more urgent time to discover The Secret of the Lord.

Reclaiming Heaven's Covenant

God's Blueprint to Restore All Relationships
Randy R. Butler

His Desire Is for Me

Bob Emery
Deep River Books

The Song of Songs is the tender tale about a monarch and a maiden; a king and his captivating bride. Viewed by some as a rather obscure book of the Bible, with eyes to see, it is a book that reveals, like none other, the passionate, intimate, and jealous love that God has for His people.

Blending fiction, commentary, and 30-days of devotions, His Desire Is for Me provides daily, bite-sized portions of the Song of Songs for you to savor, meditate upon, and enjoy. It reveals the different stages believers go through on the road to spiritual maturity in their love for the Lord, from an initial love, to an increasing love, and finally unfolding into a mature love. Read it, and you will come to believe, with conviction, that His desire is truly for you!

Bob Emery is the President of Global Opportunities for Christ, a non-profit organization that supports indigenous Christian ministries around the world.

Smoothie Rock-A-Teller

On the Whopper-Stopper

Dr. Gerald Mittmann, Gregory Cannone

Deep River Books

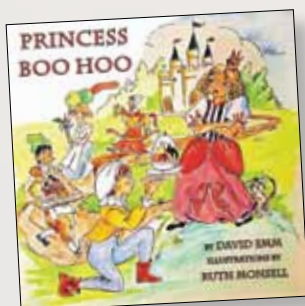

There is a story in the Bible about a WHOPPER of a giant who did not love God. Everything about him was a whopper - he was whopper tall, whopper strong, and whopper mean! Everyone was afraid of this giant, except for one.

This is David and Goliath told from the eyes of the littlest one. No, not from David (the watcher of the baa-baa mini cloud-walkers), but the rock who saw it all!

Now, rocks don't walk, and rocks don't talk, but if they could...they would tell you of the time that a whopper champion came looking for a whopper fight with the army of Israel, and how God used one small boy to bring him down with a simple little whopper-stopper!

The entire family will enjoy this Bible devotion as Smoothie Rock-A-Teller shares David's story of courage in a way you've never heard before!

Dr. Gerald Mittmann (M-Div., D-Min., Talbot/Biola University) has been a pastor to children and families for over 24 years.

Myths and Truths of the Cell Church

Key Principles that Make or Break Cell Ministry

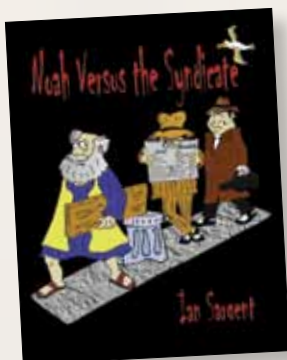

Joel Comiskey

CCS Publishing

The modern day cell movement began in the summer of 1964 when Yonggi Cho launched twenty home cell groups, led by women. From the twenty groups, the church grew to 25,000 cells and 250,000 people attending the mother church.

I wrote my Ph.D. on the cell church movement and in the process visited the eight largest cell churches in the world, including Cho's church. Over the last twenty years, I've noticed a lot of false conceptions about cell group ministry. I first began blogging about these myths/truths and received lots of positive feedback. Then I began to speak on them in my seminars. Finally, I have now recorded them into this current book. This book not only points out misconceptions but positively highlights key biblical principles that will make small groups a vital part of your church.

Joel Comiskey (Ph.D. Fuller Seminary) is founder and president of Joel Comiskey Group, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping churches fulfill the great commission. He has served as a missionary with the C&MA in Quito, Ecuador, and planted a cell-based church in southern California.

Noah Versus the Syndicate

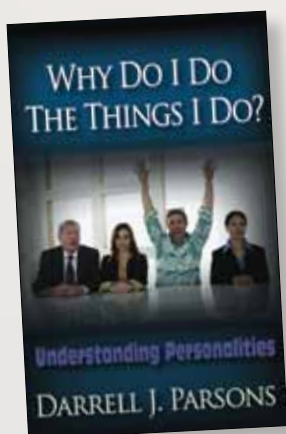

Ian Sargent
Deep River Books

Cartoonist Ian Sargent takes a humorous look at a serious message in the age-old story about a drought, a huge ark, and a man who claims to have heard from God! When the local crime boss, Mr. Snide, hears about Noah's project and his call to the people to repent from their sins, (which would destroy Snide's profits from the crime ring) he finds only one solution-eliminate Noah!

After failed assassination attempts, Snide takes a more subtle approach to undoing Noah. Funding ark building projects around Gardengreen, he tries to convince the God-fearing man of the commercial possibilities behind the ark. Surely he could lure him away with fame and fortune!

What could there possibly be to worry about? After all, it hadn't rained in years, and no one really listened to Noah anyway...except Snide's own daughter!

Ian Sargent is an accomplished cartoonist and performer. He is married and teaches at a Christian school in Australia.

Plundering Hell, Populating Heaven

Be a Conqueror through God's Vision, Vehemence, and Valor

Forson Asare Swanzy

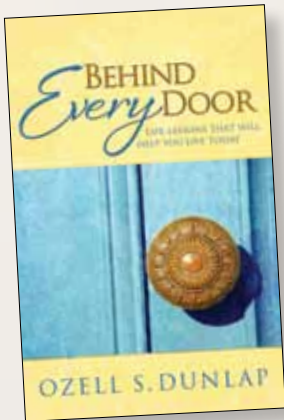

Anomalos Publishing LLC

In these last days, the Christian believer will have to equip himself like never before as the enemy of our souls engages with us in the strongest battle that history has seen. This book equips us and trains us to be part of God's end-time mighty army, offering step by step guidelines on how to utilize the divine weapons given us. Don't live in the dark. Be a conqueror using our God-given authority. New believers and long-time Christians alike will find the tools within this guide to expose the enemy's weaknesses and do battle within the unseen world of spiritual warfare.

Armed with the anointing of the Holy Spirit, like a true militant soldier of Christ, a soldier reading this book will be trained not to just take up their positions, or just to fight, but also to take back the spoils that have been stolen from themselves and their fellow believers. In this military manual, biblically-sound, expository skills, balanced contemporary understanding of the spiritual realm for your families, friends, cities, churches, and nations are explained comprehensively to the seasoned soldier, as well as the new ranks. It provides extensive knowledge to fulfill the call of the gospel, take over cities and nations, and teaches empowerment to resist Satan's attacks through God's tremendous given authority and power of the cross.

Many believers ask, "How can I fight the enemy of my soul?" For the same reason that kings of old didn't march their troops to the front battle lines with no knowledge of the enemy or how to fight, we must also be trained to be part of God's mighty end-time army. The Word of God states, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds" (2 Corinthians 10:4). What are the divine weapons given to us? How do we fight this invisible enemy who will rise up to war against our lives, cities, and nations?

Forson Asare Swanzy holds a bachelor's degree in International Studies and dual masters' degrees (Theology and Biblical Psychology) Doctorate of Christian education and awarded Honorary Doctorates of Divinity, Theology and Sacred Theology. Pastor Forson Swanzy is the founder and president of Forerunners Generation International, a non-profit parachurch organization based in Gainesville, Florida. He and his wife, Debra, and their children live in Gainesville, Florida.

When Hell Freezes Over

J. Thomas Campbell
Deep River Books

Five kilometers above Paris, the deeply dark and sinister Legion sits at his computer. Connected to the super-technological online system in the heavenly realm of the Kingdom of Darkness, Legion intends to unseat the incompetent Ruling Prince (Satan) from his position of absolute authority. But absolute authority is not what Legion is after. His desire is for supreme control, which means launching a cosmic attack against Elohim (God of heaven and earth).

Discover how Legion has been the primary source of influence throughout the centuries that has led to the modern world as we know it, and how his arrogance gives a dramatic impact to God's final victory over him.

A satirical critique of contemporary culture and modern thought, When Hell Freezes Over presents an alternative way in which to do apologetics and evangelism.

J. Thomas Campbell is from Washington, Pennsylvania. Bryant College, University of Rhode Island, Mid-America Seminary. Former pastor, now freelancing in the field of apologetics and evangelism.

Now You Know

Why Some Succeed and Others Fail Using the Same System

Ryan Chamberlin

Carpenter's Son Publishing, Imprint: Platinum Publishing

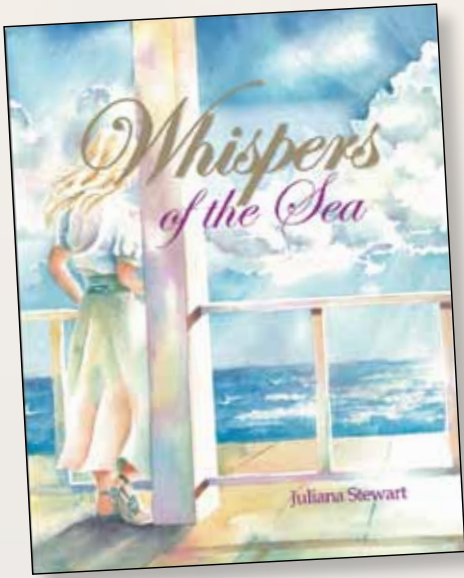

Now You Know will transform the way you think about sales. In a breakthrough book similar to the books of Og Mandino and Zig Ziglar, master salesman Ryan Chamberlin has written a book that outlines techniques for increasing sales within Biblical doctrines.

Are you a sales achiever? Do you sometimes feel like you haven't quite "figured it out?" Are you performing at the highest levels in your personal and professional life? If not, get ready, because Now You Know is a book that will move you from an average salesperson, to a top 5% influential sales master!

You can read and memorize all the pitches, scripts, and closing tips you want, but without applying these 7 laws, you are destined for mediocrity at best. That may be a strong statement, but the top money earners in sales know it to be true.

This is not a book about tactics. It's about the 7 laws, that when applied within any sales system will revolutionize your business and help you achieve the results you desire. Over the past decade, Ryan Chamberlin has trained some of the top sales people in the United States by teaching them these 7 principles that only the top pros know. He calls them "the 7 Laws of Sales." If you are not where you want to be in your life or your business, Now You Know is designed to take your sales strategy, and your team, to the highest possible level.

Ryan Chamberlin earned his first million while still in his twenties and co-pioneered several sales systems which continue to produce hundreds of millions of dollars in revenue. He spends the majority of his time consulting and coaching many top salespeople and leaders on how to leverage themselves, maximize their team-building efforts, and continue to grow to the next level.

Whispers of the Sea

Juliana Stewart

Carpenter's Son Publishing

Those who love the ocean's beauty and its Creator will delight in this inspirational and beautifully illustrated book. Whispers of the Sea is a collection of timeless stories written from a balcony overlooking the sea. On this spiritual seaside journey, the author Juliana Stewart, shares the art of listening to the small still voice within (the Whispers). She entices her readers to pursue an inward and outward journey by experiencing nature, communing with God and seeking their own answers to life's questions.

Inspired by the serenity of the sea, Juliana shares stories about love, marriage, adversity, forgiveness, and determination. Each page comes to life as seagulls laugh, the Master displays His art in spectacular sunrises and sunsets, and the very breath of God is heard in the ebbs and flows of the ocean's tide.

Emotional and thought provoking, the author captures the mood of the ever-changing sea with stories of joy, storms, choices, consequences, courage, hope, loneliness, loss and life's challenges. Whispers of the Sea encourages readers to seek quiet solitude, appreciate simple pleasures, and discover the importance of being fully present in each moment. They will be inspired... to love and forgive, to discover their inner strength and determination, to let go of worry and anger, and to find faith and hope.

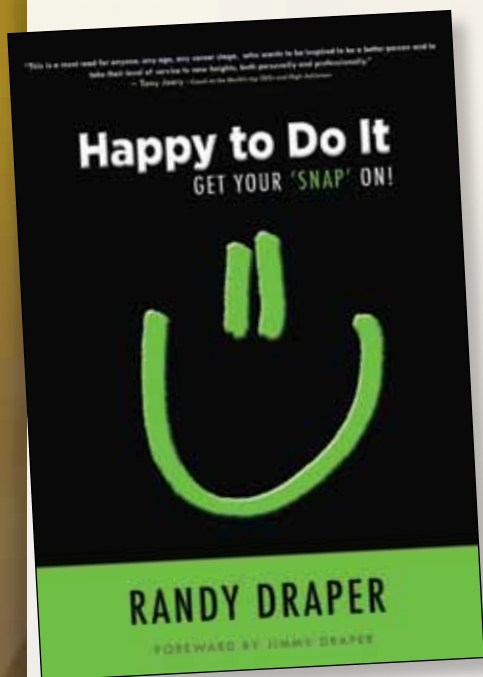

Whispers of the Sea speaks to the heart. Readers are calling it a perfect gift!

One reviewer describes Whispers of the Sea as:
"A thoughtful, tender musing reminiscent of Anne Morrow Lindbergh's Gift from the Sea."

Happy to Do It Get Your 'Snap' On!

Randy Draper
Carpenter's Son Publishing

In his premier publication, Happy to Do It, Randy Draper candidly shares how devastating and life-changing circumstances that could have easily destroyed him, his marriage, and his walk with the Lord all ultimately worked together to accomplish just the opposite—a strengthened and renewed commitment to maintain a Christ-centered perspective in all of life's circumstances. Randy explains how, through challenge after challenge, he came to draw strength from this simple commandment: "Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus."

As a successful entrepreneur, speaker and author from Dallas-Ft. Worth, Randy's book truly can be judged by what's on its cover—a contagiously joyful fluorescent green smiley face. Chapter by chapter, Randy knits together humorous and heart-warming stories to present the simple yet profound importance of attitude—that it truly has the power to change everything!

Happy to Do It shows readers that true happiness is found in servant leadership. Randy learned this first-hand from his father, pastor and past president of LifeWay Christian Resources, Jimmy Draper and from his polio-stricken Grandmother Draper. "She had every reason in the world to complain, but always chose to see things from God's perspective and to view things positively," Draper writes. "It was from her that I learned my joy is not in what I have or don't have, but in the depth of my relationships."

Randy Draper is a successful leader in the direct sales industry. He trains and motivates thousands of business people all over America every year. He uses laughter and timeless life principles from the Bible to inspire every audience. He and his "high school sweetheart", Elizabeth, live in Texas.

Great Men Bow Down

Legendary Men of History Reveal Their Source of True Greatness

Gordon Lawrence

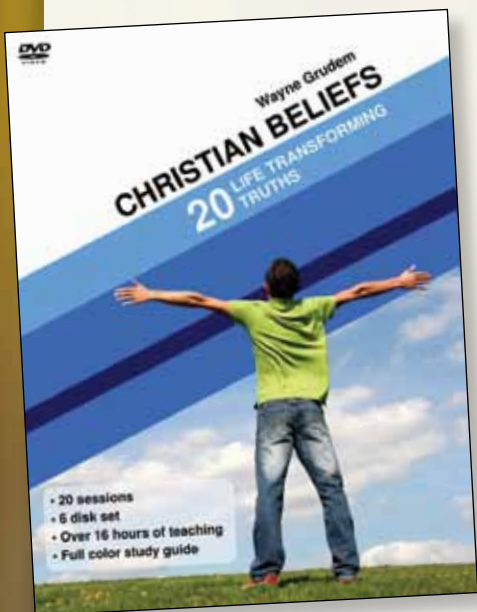

Carpenter's Son Publishing, Imprint: SwordPoint Publishing

The Post Modern culture of Globalism is slowly eradicating the history we have known and the heroes we have admired. As western culture concedes it place of prominence in world politics and levels the playing field to allow other cultures, religions and ideologies to rewrite our history books we will find that "they" are not as sympathetic to our Judeo Christian heritage. Great men like Columbus, Newton, Bacon, Washington, Einstein, Lombardi, and Eisenhower have been inspired by Jehovah God to explore, discover, invent, publish, manufacture and lead.

Lawrence introduces each man with a powerful quote about the God of the Bible, and then paints a simple vignette of his life which quickly embeds his legacy in the mind of the reader. Turn the pages of history; be surprised and inspired by 150 stories of great achievement and great tribute, plus 700 quotes from over 300 notable personalities. The back of the book includes 2 chapters entitled: "What You Believe and How You Pray" - Seven Words of Transformation. "Backbone of the Believer" (what you believe) includes seven basic and memorable doctrines of the Christian faith. "Reporting for Duty" (how you pray) includes a model prayer based on an interpretative outline summary of Genesis 1:28.

From kids to aging seniors, this book will inspire the reader and hopefully motivate a new generation to rise above the mediocrity of the age to serve the God of all ages. This book reminds the reader that truly great men always bow down to a Sovereign God.

Gordon Lawrence is the owner of Lawrence Design Group, an architectural firm in Lawrenceville, Georgia. He is a former pastor, church planter and educator, with theological training from The University of North Carolina at Charlotte and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

VALUable Bible Activities is a series of coloring/activity books that are educationally sound and that stimulate children to ask questions. Our goal is to provide exceptional graphics and activities that will encourage young minds to want to know more. They will be able to relate to the people in the Bible, allowing God to become exceptionally real and personal and not simply a god in a storybook.

16 Old Testament and 16 New Testament Bible characters are introduced. Their success came from their relationship to God, the values that God instilled in them and their ability to trust God for their strength and wisdom that only He could give. Each activity is age appropriate and may be used in Sunday School, Christian School, and Home School environments.

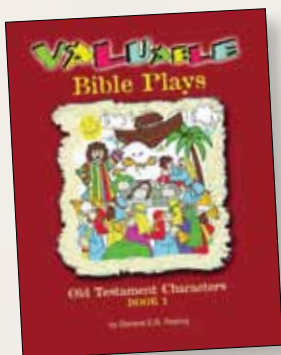

Cindy Jackson is an accomplished illustrator with over 25 years of experience in church ministry. Her work shows her passion for telling children about Jesus. Her unique artistic talent has been used to develop memory verse take-home projects, crafts, bulletin board designs and vacation bible school art. She has also supervised other artists on projects relating to children's art and graphic design. Along with her other gifts, Cindy has also created children's artwork for a variety of mission outreaches in Africa, Central America and Europe. Having past experience with Sunday school curriculum, combined with her Illustrating experience and graphics training, Cindy has become a valuable asset to VALUable Bible Tools as she creates quality Bible-based activities for children. Using historical research, humor and creativity, each play can stand alone as an individual play, or it can flow naturally into the next historical event. They are meant to be a fun way to experience God's Word for both the actors and audiences. VALUable Bible Plays Book One includes Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Joshua, Samuel

With God's Word being presented in such a viable, fun and loving capacity, it would be impossible for there to be an unsuccessful practice or performance. In fact, script- line flow will encourage memorization, and "emergency" (forgetting the script- line) ad-libbing will not harm the message. Remember, God loves us, mistakes and all and He is the most important audience. He delights in watching His children as they share the Word in such a creative way.

Plays may be presented in chronological order, or with a time-oriented explanation, perhaps correlating with Bible study or Sunday school lessons. Likewise, these Biblical events re-enacted will not only bring the ancient stories to life, but will enrich today's current events, along with geographical awareness.

VALUable Bible Plays may also be adapted to any size church with any type of budget and there are no age limits to be involved. In fact, all the plays are meant to include as many church participants, of all ages, as possible. Parts are written for the experienced, mature actor as well as for the toddlers who become hopping frogs in the Egyptian plague. Here is a fun way to get the whole church involved in a visual Bible study. For example, when Moses meets Pharaoh, the plague of frogs may be played by four year olds!

VALUable Bible Plays introduces Old Testament characters and events in historical sequence that allows the audience to learn as they are entertained. Each play has a balance of humor, along with historical continuity that flows into the next play. Each of the 16 Old Testament plays are also stand-alone performances. Using simple props, staging and costuming, any church can provide a successful drama presentation that will be entertaining and educational.

Darlene E.R. Resling has spent much of her life preparing to pastor "God's sheep". A church member wrote that "she joyfully devotes at least 26 hours per day to these responsibilities, at least 8 days per week, while displaying seemingly infinite patience, compassion, and caring.

My Life in a Box...A Life Organizer

How To Build an Emergency Tool Box

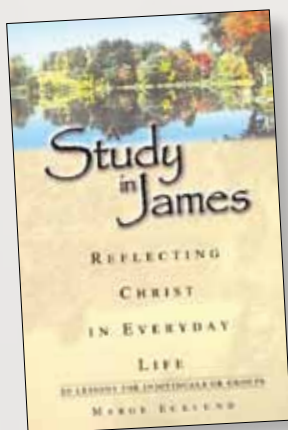

Laurie Ecklund Long

AGL Publishing

You will be introduced to a simple way to locate all of your personal, legal and financial documents, then store them for easy access. Each family member will build a 3-day Get Away Bag and begin creating a shelter-in-place kit just in case the power goes off in your community for over a week. Once you begin the process, you will be given new tools to successfully deal with major life-experiences you may face in the future.

As with any tool box, you will probably not use each of the tools right away, but when you need them, they will be there and you will know how to put them to use. Crisis comes to all of us at some time. It may not always come as a major calamity like a terrorist attack, tornado, hurricane, catastrophic flood or earthquake. More likely it will be a death in the family, an accident, or fire, but the impact feels much the same.

Laurie Ecklund Long is an emergency specialist with over a decade of experience as an author and national speaker. She provides a wealth of information relating to surviving natural disasters, terminal illnesses and family emergencies.

A Study in James

Reflecting Christ in Everyday Life

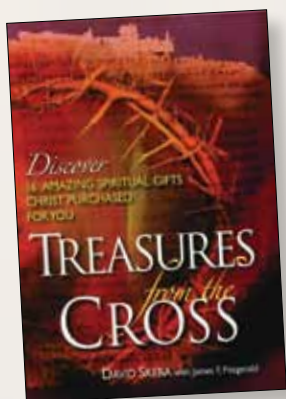

Marge Ecklund

AGL Publishing

How can we "rejoice" when we encounter trials? "During a week when I had been studying James 1:5-8, I lost my car keys at the beach. The two keys, attached together, had fallen out of a camera case and onto the sand without my realizing it..." Author, Marge Ecklund brings her own experience into this series of nineteen Bible studies using examples that anyone can relate to. Her stories do not just involve the challenges she faced, they provide practical answer using scripture found in the book of James.

Whether used as a personal Bible study or one for a large group, A Study in James offers practical application for living in today's world. Since the book of James is a letter written to believers in the Lord Jesus Christ, A Study in James is great for men, women, or couples, as well as high school, and college young people.

Author Marge Ecklund brings a practical, unique way of adapting Christian principles to everyday life through her writing and speaking. She has two daughters, four grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Soul Food: Soul Nourishing Devotionals and Recipes

Daunte' Gibbs

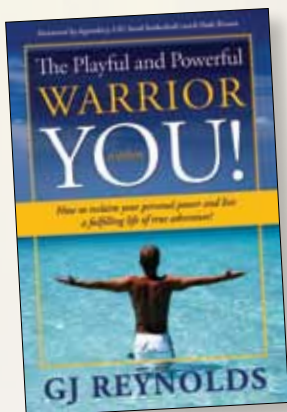

NewLife Book Distributors, LLC

It is often said that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, but in Soul Food: Soul-Nourishing Devotionals and Recipes, Daunte' Gibbs proves that the way to a man's or woman's soul is the Word of God!

Soul Food combines inspiring devotionals that everyone can relate to; with delicious recipes that anyone can make. Recipes include Divine Potato Salad and Soulful Collard Greens, among others. Gibbs' recipes are comfort foods at their homemade best, paired with spiritual anecdotes and the Word of God, Soul Food provides exactly what its name implies, nourishment for the soul, body, and spirit in twelve devotionals and recipes that will keep you coming back for more.
